

World Population Day-2022

Essay Writing Competition for College/ University Students

World Population Day is an annual event to raise awareness on global population issues. This is observed on 11th July every year. This year, we are focusing on the theme “How to safeguard the health & rights of women & girls”.

On this occasion, International Institute for Population Sciences (IIPS) is organizing an English essay writing competition for the graduate and post-graduate students of colleges and universities of Mumbai city. This will be held on Monday, 4th July 2022 from 11:30 am - 12:30 pm (1 hour duration) at our Institute (MPS class room, 2nd floor, Library building). We will have separate competition for graduate and post-graduate students. The topic of the essay will be announced on the spot. IIPS will award the best two essays from each category with cash prizes and certificates. This will be presented on World Population Day event at IIPS on 11th July, 2022.

Interested graduate and post-graduate students may participate in the essay writing competition by registering on the google form attached below before 3rd July, 2022. Participants are required to bring their College/ University photo identity card along with them.
