Advertisement No. Admin/01/2021

International Institute for Population Sciences (IIPS) is one of the leading Institutions in research and postgraduate teaching in the field of population studies and allied areas. IIPS has its origin in 1956 under the joint sponsorship of Sir Dorabji Tata Trust, the Government of India and the United Nations. The Institute was declared as a “Deemed to be University” by the University Grants Commission in the year 1985. IIPS holds a unique position in the field of demographic research and teaching in the world. The Institute is under the administrative control of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India.

There are seven Academic Departments in the Institute. The members of faculty are drawn from a diverse interdisciplinary background with specialization in some core areas of population sciences or health trained in India or abroad. Currently Institute offers 3 Master’s degree programmes in regular mode and one Master’s degree programme through distance education mode. The Institute also offers Ph.D. and Post Doctoral Fellowship in Population Studies and Bio-statistics. In addition, there are two diploma courses offered by the Institute through National Institute of Public Health Training and Research. The alumni of IIPS are occupying prestigious positions at national and international organisations, universities and colleges, and reputed non-governmental organisations.

The Institute is the hub of a population and health-related teaching and research in India, playing a pivotal role in policy and programme interventions in the broad areas of population and health. IIPS is known for its expertise in carrying out many large scale scientific surveys like National Family Health Surveys (NFHS), Longitudinal Ageing Study of India (LASI), District Level Household Survey (DLHS), Global Youth Tobacco Survey (GYTS) etc.

Institute invites applications for the following teaching positions in the various departments.
