

The Director interacted with the students of the Master of Survey Research and Data Analytics (MSD) programme and discussed their academic experiences, aspirations, and learning requirements.

The interaction provided an opportunity for an open and constructive dialogue, reinforcing the Institute's commitment to fostering a student-centric learning environment that supports academic excellence, professional growth, and the overall development of students.

